GILLOM ATHLETICS PERFORMANCE CENTER

In the spring of 1996, ground was broken for the construction of a new multi-sport facility, and in July 1997, the complex, the Gillom Athletics Performance Center, ushered in a new era in women's athletics at Ole Miss.

The facility, which was built on the University's intramural fields on Hathorn Road near Highway 6, is a metal structure with a brick front similar to other campus edifices. Right off the court are locker rooms and a team lounge and meeting room. The team meeting room and lounge provides the volleyball program with a place to congregate during non-practice times and can serve as a home away from home for the team. Athletes watch TV, study or play games, including a pool table in the volleyball team room.

On April 28, 2000, the complex was dedicated as the Gillom Center in honor of Rebel basketball legends Peggie and Jennifer Gillom. The Gillom sisters are the top two scorers in the history of the program.

The volleyball portion of the Gillom Center experienced upgrades prior to the 2010 season, with the playing court being moved and additional grandstand seating added to the facility. Chairback seating was added to the north side of the court behind the team benches to completely surround the playing surface with fans.

The facility recently underwent another extensive renovation that was completed in the summer of 2017. Updates to the facility included additions to the volleyball competition area, a weight room and training room and two video rooms for teams to watch film. The building houses offices and locker rooms for the rifle, soccer, softball and volleyball programs.

Over the years, the Gillom Center has become a tough venue on visiting teams thanks to a vocal and supportive fan base. The 2017 season saw a record 13,168 fans coming to the Gillom Athletics Performance Center, setting a single-season attendance record. In 2018, back-to-back at-capacity attendance records were set in Gillom. A staggering 1,057 fans were in attendance on October 19 vs. Florida, and then two days later, the record was broken again with 1,207 fans packed into Gillom to see Ole Miss pick up a 3-1 victory over in-state rival Mississippi State. In 2021, the Rebels once again raised the bar. Gillom was over full capacity as 1,251 fans piled in to cheer on Ole Miss, who took defending National Champions Kentucky to five sets before ultimately falling 3-2.

With the growth of the sport, Ole Miss has continued to roll out all the stops. In 2023, the Rebels debuted a new Taraflex court, providing an elite competition space for their student athletes. Ole Miss' Taraflex court features a faux wood pattern outlined in the Rebels' signature Powder Blue. For fans, new lighting effects for starting lineups and an additional concessions point of sale were also added to enhance the matchday experience.

BRE HENRY

THE SCOOP

With national championship pedigree as both an athlete and coach, Bre Henry leads the Ole Miss Rebels volleyball program in her third full season as head coach in 2025.

Over the course of her eight seasons as a graduate assistant, assistant coach and head coach, Henry helped produce five All-Americans, 16 All-Region honorees and won the 2017 NCAA crown with Nebraska. Throughout her entire career, she has either been mentored by or worked alongside some of the top coaches in the nation, such as John Cook (Nebraska), Matt Ulmer (Oregon) and Erin Lindsey (Santa Clara), among others.

In her first full season as head coach and second with the Rebels, Henry changed the culture of the program. She created an environment where student-athletes and staff became a family and fell in love with the game of volleyball while still competing at a high level in the SEC.

Henry was the architect of a historic 2024 season, in which the Rebels went 18-12 with a 7-9 mark in SEC play and won the program's first ever NCAA Tournament match. The Rebels achieved countless success stories, culminating in the first round victory over No. 21 Florida State in Omaha, Nebraska. Henry helped guide Nia Washington to new heights in 2024, as Washington was named an AVCA All-American Honorable Mention, AVCA All-South Region and All-SEC honoree. It marked another transfer success story under Henry, alongside the development of first year Rebel setter Mokihana Tufono, who also earned AVCA All-South Region honors and recorded a sensational 1,173 assists in her first season in Oxford. Defensively, Henry oversaw another huge year from the blocking duo of Sasha Ratliff and Payton Brgoch. Ratliff finished her career as the program's all-time leading blocker, while Brgoch took home AVCA All-South Region Honorable Mention honors as she set a new single-season total block record in the rally scoring era with 134.0. Cammy Niesen also shined under Henry, leading the SEC with 537 digs, while moving into third all-time in program history in just three seasons.

The Rebels made waves in the SEC, earning several big wins. Henry and the Rebels erased losing streaks against traditional powers Arkansas and Tennessee that predated her arrival, while extending the program's longest winning streak against LSU since 1997-98. The Rebels rode a balanced lineup that led the SEC in total digs (1,732), ranked second in blocks (238.0), ranked third in kills (1,578) and ranked third in assists (1,482) into the NCAA Tournament, where Henry's team etched their names into the record books.

In 2023, the Rebels finished with an 11-18 record, including a 5-13 mark in conference play. Under Henry, the Ole Miss offense saw seven Rebels finish the season with over 100 kills, including four with over 200. Among those with offensive success were Anna Bair, who wrapped her Ole Miss career with the fifth most kills by any player in school history, and Julia Dyess, who led the Rebels in kills in SEC play and finished with a breakout junior season. She helped Sasha Ratliff and Payton Brgoch rank inside the top five in hitting percentage in the SEC while recording 100 blocks. The two middle blockers also entered the top five in program history in total blocks with a chance to be the two best to ever wear a Rebel uniform at their position.

Ole Miss saw vast improvements defensively after ranking last in the SEC and 302nd nationally in opponent hitting percentage and 10th in digs per set a season ago. In 2023, Henry and defensive coach Taylor Gregory guided a defense that averaged 13.95 digs per set, the third-best mark in the SEC. Cammy Niesen ranked third in the conference with her 4.04 digs per set to lead the way. In total, the Rebels featured one of the stingiest defenses in the SEC, holding their opponents to a .210 hitting percentage (fifth-best in the SEC).

Henry joined the Ole Miss staff as assistant coach prior to the 2022 season and was named acting head coach for the final 11 matches. After a national search in the offseason, she was the clear choice to guide the Rebel volleyball team into the future and was named permanent head coach on Friday, Dec. 9, 2022, by Vice Chancellor for Intercollegiate Athletics Keith Carter.

Working primarily as the defensive coordinator until her promotion, Henry helped middle blocker Sasha Ratliff earn her second All-SEC and AVCA South All-Region nod and guided Payton Brgoch to the fourth-most blocks in a single season in program history. She was also instrumental in the growth of a young Rebel team that saw three freshmen see significant playing time at setter, libero and outside hitter. Under her guidance, they garnered multiple SEC weekly honors, and Aly Borellis was named to the All-SEC Freshman Team.

Prior to arriving at Ole Miss, Henry spent three seasons as an assistant at Santa Clara. During her time with the Broncos, Santa Clara produced three AVCA All-Region selections, 12 All-WCC accolades and 10 WCC all-academic nods. A proven defensive mind, Santa Clara led the WCC and ranked 10th nationally with 326.5 total blocks.

Henry began her coaching career as a graduate assistant with one of the nation's elite programs at Nebraska. In two seasons, the Huskers went 62-11, winning the 2017 NCAA title and finishing as runner-up in 2018 while producing four All-Americans and six all-conference selections.

A former standout student-athlete at Long Beach State, Henry played both indoor and beach volleyball, earning ACVA All-American Honors for the 2014 indoor season and winning the 2013 beach National Championship. She helped lead the 49ers to a 27-5 record and a perfect 16-0 mark in the Big West Conference during her senior campaign. After graduating, Henry continued her playing career professionally in the Philippines and Switzerland in 2015 and 2016.

A Redding, California, native, Henry studied kinesiology as an undergraduate student at Long Beach State before earning a master's in sports and exercise psychology from Argosy University in 2016 and a master's in education administration from Nebraska in 2017.

Henry and her husband John reside in Oxford with their children, Quinn and Jones.

TAYLOR GREGORY

THE SCOOP

Taylor Gregory enters his third season as associate head coach of the Ole Miss Rebels volleyball program in 2025.

The Rebels continued their rise through the SEC across many different defensive metrics under Gregory in 2024. Under Gregory, the Rebels led the SEC with 1,732 digs and ranked second in the SEC in total blocks at 293.0. The Rebels also held opponents to a .195 hitting percentage, good for the third-best in the SEC, while ranking fifth in the SEC in blocks per set (2.44) and digs per set (14.43). Sasha Ratlff and Payton Brgoch led a stingy defense under Gregory, finishing their careers ranking first and fourth in total blocks across all eras of volleyball in Ole Miss history. Brgoch had a season to remember, recording 134.0 blocks, which set a single season record at Ole Miss in the rally scoring era. Behind the blockers, junior Cammy Niesen continued to build her legacy as one of the top liberos in program history, recording a career-high 537 digs, which ranked third on the program's single-season list. Niesen also set the program's single-match digs record with a stunning 39 in a win over Arkansas.

In his first season with the Rebels, he took over the defensive efforts, where Ole Miss saw vast improvements defensively. After ranking last in the SEC and 302nd nationally in opponent hitting percentage and 10th in the conference in digs per set a season ago, Gregory guided the Rebels to average 13.95 digs per set, the third-best mark in the SEC, and helped the Rebels create one of the stingiest defenses in the SEC, holding their opponents to a .210 hitting percentage (fifth-best in the SEC) in 2023. Leading the way was libero Cammy Niesen, who ranked third in the conference with 4.04 digs per set. Under Gregory, Ole Miss also set a new single match program record with 113 digs against Tulsa, with Niesen tallying 34 digs, the third most in the rally scoring era and most by a Rebel since 2010. He also helped six players record at least 100 digs, including Maggie Miller, who tallied her 500th career dig against LSU.

Gregory also played a large role in the success of middle blockers Payton Brgoch and Sasha Ratliff, who both entered the top five in program history in total blocks that season. He guided the duo to another 100-block year, making Ole Miss one of four teams in the SEC with a pair of middles to top the century mark.

Gregory joined the Rebels from San José State, where he served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. In just four years with the Spartans, he helped turn the program around, guiding San José State to a 40-19 record over the last two seasons, including SJSU's first 20-win season in more than 20 years. Gregory also coached 11 student-athletes that went on to receive All-Mountain West honors, leading the conference in each of the past two seasons with four honorees.

In 2022, he helped lead the Spartans to their most successful season in the Mountain West, finishing with a 21-9 overall record and second place finish in the league with a 14-4 mark and advancing to the Mountain West Championship for the first time in program history. Gregory's defense was among the conference's best, ranking fifth with 2.28 blocks per set (91st nationally) and 13.15 digs per set. The 2021 campaign saw San José State post a 19-10 record and third-place finish in the conference standings while ranking first in the Mountain West with 15.17 digs per set.

Working specifically as the Spartans' defensive coordinator, Gregory mentored the middle blockers and liberos at San José State. Gregory guided libero Sarah Smevog to tally the second-most digs in a Spartan uniform and ninth all-time in Mountain West history with 1,734 career digs and middle blocker Jiana Lawson record 109.0 total blocks, the ninth-most in the conference, and 164 kills at a .313 clip.

Prior to San José State, he was a volunteer assistant coach at Seattle University for the 2018 women's team and the assistant coach for the men's team at Golden West College for the 2018 season. He also worked at Team Rockstar Volleyball Club, where he was the head coach for the 16 Mizuno team, among others.

A two-time All-American and three-time All-Conference honoree, Gregory played collegiately at Long Beach State, where he finished his career as one of the most decorated middle blockers in program history. Over his four-year career, he amassed 500 total blocks, the fifth most in program history. As a freshman with the 49ers, he led the nation in blocks per set and ranked second in the category during his junior season. Gregory also boasts success on the international stage, serving as a member of the U.S. Men's Junior National Team for the 2013 FIVB U21 World Championship in Turkey.

He is married to Delainey Gregory, who was a four-year player for the Long Beach State indoor and beach volleyball teams and former assistant coach at San José State. The two are also joined in Oxford with their daughter Murphy.

BRAD CREAMER

THE SCOOP

Brad Creamer enters his fifth season as assistant coach of the Ole Miss Rebels volleyball program in 2025.

Guided by Creamer, the 2024 offense continued to shine and delivered record-setting production en route to the program's first NCAA Tournament victory. Nia Washington recorded 445 kills, good for a career-high and the most by any Rebel since 2019, en route to AVCA All-American Honorable Mention honors. Washington tallied two 30-kill performances, including a 32-kill explosion against Mississippi State to match the program's rally scoring record and was just one shy of the overall record set in 1989. Four players recorded 200 or more kills, including additional career-highs by Shayla Meyer (303 kills) and first-year Rebel Emma Ammerman (201 kills). The blocking duo of Sasha Ratliff and Payton Brgoch wrapped up their highly productive careers with .346 and .341 hitting percentages, respectively. Ratliff finished as the program's all-time leader in hitting percentage, with a career clip of .346, in a tenure largely overseen by Creamer. Brgoch finished close behind Ratliff in fourth place at .328. First-year transfer setter Mokihana Tufono also had a huge season under Creamer, recording the fourth-most assists in the rally scoring era (1,173) and ranking second in the SEC.

Under Creamer in 2023, the Ole Miss offense saw seven Rebels finish the season with over 100 kills, including four with over 200. He helped fifth-year senior Anna Bair wrap up her collegiate career as one of the top attackers in program history as she finished with the fifth most kills (1,399) by any player to ever wear an Ole Miss uniform. Creamer also guided Julia Dyess to a breakout junior season. The Brandon, Mississippi, native had her best statistical season, leading the Rebels in kills (176) in SEC play. She averaged 2.41 kills and 2.81 points per set while recording at least 10 kills in nine matches. Further, she was the only Rebel to post a 20-kill contest, finishing with a career-high 22 kills in a victory over LSU. Creamer's offensive game planning helped Ole Miss' middle blockers thrive. Sasha Ratliff and Payton Brgoch ranked inside the top five in hitting percentage in the SEC, and the duo each racked up over 200 kills on the season.

Working primarily as the offensive coordinator in 2022, Creamer led the Rebels to a .247 attacking percentage on the season. Under his guidance, Ole Miss ran one of the SEC's top offenses, ranking third in the conference in assists per set (12.32) and kills per set (13.59). He also helped freshman setter Aly Borellis earn All-SEC Freshman team honors in her first season in Oxford. Borellis ranked 14th nationally with 9.40 assists per set, tallying 931 on the year.

With the offense, he helped Anna Bair and Sasha Ratliff become two of the conference's top weapons. Bair eclipsed the 1,000 career kill mark with 344 on the season, ranking 13th in the SEC with 3.37 per set. Ratliff posted the second-most kills out of the middle blocker position while hitting at the fifth-best percentage in the conference with a .343 clip. The duo was recognized with AVCA South All-Region honors for the second consecutive year.

In his first year with the Rebels as a Volunteer Assistant Coach in 2021, Creamer was part of the best turnaround in Division I Volleyball. Creamer helped Ole Miss improve from 1-19 in 2020-21 to 21-9 in 2021, a 65 percent increase in winning percentage. He assisted in the Rebels' return to the Big Dance, helping Ole Miss go 8-3 through its final 11 games to earn an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Under Creamer, the Rebels broke multiple program records, including total team blocks in a season (479), total team block assists (427) and team attacking percentage (.255). He also helped three Rebels earn ACVA South All-Region honors and a pair take home All-SEC accolades.

Creamer joined the staff at Ole Miss after finishing a career at George Mason University. Over the course of his five years, he garnered multiple accolades, including being tabbed as a 2021 AVCA All-American in his redshirt senior season, 2021 Off the Block National Player of the Month, 2021 Off the Block National Player of the Year Finalist and 2021 All-EIVA Second Team selection.

In addition to his playing career, Creamer spent four years coaching youth volleyball in the Fairfax/DC area.

SAVANNAH RENNIE

THE SCOOP

Savannah Rennie enters her second season at Ole Miss under head coach Bre Henry.

Rennie served as a key mentor for the resurgent Rebels in 2024, who took home the program's first ever NCAA Tournament victory in an 18-12 (7-9 SEC) season. Under her guidance, several Rebels finished with career years, as Sasha Ratliff became the program's all-time leader in total blocks, while teammate Payton Brgoch finished fourth all-time. Additionally, Nia Washington earned All-SEC and AVCA All-South Region honors as part of career-year, while Mokihana Tufono, Cammy Niesen and Brgoch were all honored with AVCA All-South Region nods.

In 2023, Rennie helped lead Cal to its first winning season since 2019, finishing the year with a 16-15 (5-15 Pac-12) record, including an undefeated 11-0 nonconference mark. Working primarily with the defense, she played a large role in the Bears' holding opponents to the fourth-lowest hitting percentage in the Pac-12.

Under Rennie's guidance, three student-athletes earned their first career All-Pac-12 honors, with Tara DeSa and Annalea Maeder receiving an Honorable Mention nod and Maggie Li earning both Freshman of the Year and First Team honors. Li went on to earn AVCA Pacific West Region Freshman of the Year and was named All-Pacific West Region Honorable Mention, the only freshman to do so. DeSa led the conference in both digs and digs per set, surpassing 500 on the season, while Maeder turned heads with her first career 1,000-assist season and 46 service aces.

Rennie started her collegiate coaching career in 2022 as a volunteer assistant at USC, who reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. With the Trojans, she helped Skylar Fields receive First Team All-American honors, while teammate Mia Tuaniga earned All-American Honorable Mention honors.

As an athlete, Rennie spent five seasons at Cal, where she majored in media studies. She rose to national prominence following battles with congenital hepatic fibrosis with portal hypertension (which required her to undergo a liver transplant in 2016) and non-Hodgkin post-transplant lymphoma. In Rennie's senior season in 2019, she earned Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week (Sept. 2) honors as well as the Tournament MVP title at the CSU Rams Volleyball Classic; she later tore her ACL but continued to take the court for the Bears.

In her final two years of collegiate competition, she played for the Marquette Golden Eagles while earning a master's degree in corporate communications. At Marquette, Rennie garnered two All-Big East honors (2020, 2021) and a 2020 All-Region nod from the AVCA. She was also named to the 2020 All-Big East Championship Team and the 2021 All-Big East Preseason Team.

In high school, Rennie was PrepVolleyball.com's No. 20 Senior Ace in the class of 2015, as well as an Under Armour Third Team All-American, a PrepVolleyball.com All-American and a U.S. Youth National Team member.

NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Ole Miss made its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2006 under head coach Joe Getzin. The following season he helped guide the Rebels back to the Big Dance; however it wouldn't be until 2010 that they make an appearance in the Championship Tournamnet. In 2021, Ole Miss snapped an 11 year drought, punching a ticket to its fourth-ever NCAA Tournament with one of the best seasons in program history. The Rebels would go on to make program history in 2024 under head coach Bre Henry, winning the program's first ever NCAA Tournament match in a five-set win over No. 21 Florida State.
